LUMBER
The most popular building material in the world; always has been, is now, and always will be. Although it seems high priced, it is the most economical and dependable material to be had, and it is the only material within the purchasing power of ninety-five per cent of the people. There are millions and billions of feet of it growing right here in Arizona and will be fifty years from today and it seems it ought to be a great deal cheaper. There will probably have to be more people engaged in the lumber business before any great change is brought about. Right now Shoup is getting in about one hundred thousand feet that is being sold cheaper, but he is not fitted up to keep a stock of it at all times.

S-K HEARING DRAWS CROWD

But Curiosity Remains Unsatisfied; When Defense In Stevens-Keddington Case Demurs; New Hearing On Saturday

Attracted by the announcement that Paul Stevens and Cyril Keddington were to be brought into court yesterday, a large crowd thronged Judge Stanford's court room only to learn that Attorney Shambhart had filed a demurrer to the information and that there would be no proceedings until Saturday, when arguments on the demurrer will be heard.
The only women present were the wives of the young men charged with contributing to the delinquency of Jane Doe, a minor. They sat in the last row of the benches and eagerly listened to the short conference between Shambhart, Assistant County Attorney G. S. Cunningham and the court. They turned an occasional gaze to the two defendants, who do not present the chipper appearance they did when they were arrested more than a week ago, but made no attempt to speak to them as they passed them to return to their cell. Shambhart said that he hoped by the end of the week to be able to furnish the $1,000 bail required in each case.
In the demurrer it is claimed that there is more than one offense charged and that the facts stated in the information do not constitute an offense.

KIDS SWARM SAFELY IN BIG Y. M. C. A. TANK

Pool Very Popular; Place Now: Free Swimming Lessons and Supervision Make for "Safety First."

These warm days, school being out, the Y. M. C. A. is becoming the most popular hang-out for kids in the city. The physical department has arranged so that all members in the boys' department above the prep class swim almost every day. The preparatory boys from 8 to 11 are allowed to go in twice a week.
The association has one of the best swimming tanks in the west. It is tile-lined, the water is changed twice a week and the pool is cleaned at the same time. The boys have certain hours when they use the pool and they are under the watchful eye of experienced directors, so that no accident or rough-housing occurs. Any boy wishing to learn to swim is taught free of charge. Every boy is required to take a hot bath before entering the pool.
Parents of boys can be assured he is under rate supervision while at the "Y."

LUMBER PILE AFIRE—The fire department was called yesterday afternoon to Seventh street and McDowell road, where a pile of lumber was discovered to be on fire. Chemicals applied judiciously extinguished the fire.

GARAGE AFIRE—A small garage at 311 East Roosevelt street was found to be afire yesterday afternoon and only prompt work on the part of the neighbors saved the structure. It is said that some boys playing in the vicinity deliberately set fire to the building, and then ran away. The police are investigating.

GAUT ARRESTED ON NEW BAD CHECK DEAL

John A. Gaut, who has been more or less in the public eye because of his irregular financial transactions, was arrested yesterday charged with issuing a bogus check. His suspended sentence for a similar offense having just expired he could not be taken up on the old charge and sentenced without further court proceedings. He was brought into Judge De Souza's court, where he was arraigned and his preliminary examination set for two o'clock Friday afternoon. His bond was fixed in the sum of $500.

Gaut, it is alleged, attempted to pass a $10 check on the Central Bank on a Chinese restaurant in this city. The complaining witness in the new case is Chong Chong, proprietor of the place, who brought the matter before the authorities yesterday. The man was arrested in Mesa.
It is understood that sympathy for Gaut's family was responsible for a suspended sentence in his previous escapade, which was not his first. It is understood that a check of that sort will have little weight if Gaut is proven guilty in this instance.

FLAG AND BOOK GO ROUNDS OF STATES

Arizona Chief Executive Signs Name In Book, and Will Have Star On Flag Sewn On By First Lady

Governor Hunt yesterday received a handsome silk American flag, enclosed in a highly upholstered green plush box, along with which was an embossed vellum book, highly illuminated, and containing the seals of all the states of the union and the great seal of the United States.

On each page under the state seal, the governor of that particular state had put his autograph. On the flag, the points of the stars had been left unfurnished, and the governor was requested to put his name on the Arizona page, have his wife or one of the leading women of the state sew down the points of the flag, and then send it on to some other governor.

The flag and book were first sent out by the Junior Order of American Mechanics of New York. President Wilson, very kindly affixed his signature to the place allotted him, and had one of the stars sewed on. Governor Whitman of New York, Governor Willis of Ohio, and all the eastern chief executives had complied with the request.

In the letter accompanying the articles, it is explained that the flag and book will be kept by the New York lodge, after its completion as a symbol of purity and patriotism.

These hot days your boy will want something to do. Why not let him join the "Y." Where he can swim every week day.—Adv.

RAY IS CHAMP LONG DISTANCE MINISTER

Secretary of Hunt Recall Society Holds Down Pulpit Near Los Angeles; Has Long Way to Go.

It is a long way between the church and the parsonage for the Rev. J. L. Ray, pastor of the First Methodist church of Hollywood, who has the distinction of being one of the unique "circuit riders" of the country, says the Los Angeles Times. While he is pastor of the church in the Los Angeles suburb, his home, it was revealed last week at the district conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, south, at San Bernardino, is in Phoenix, from which place he makes a journey to the local church regularly twice a month, arriving on Saturday, after an all-night trip, and returning to his parsonage in another state on Monday.
The minister's traveling expenses are $1,000 a year, an amount greater than the salary which he receives. A lucrative position in Arizona enables him to retain his standing as a minister in the Methodist Episcopal
